CUBA'S LIBERTY CAUSES REJOICING

Another Interesting Letter Reaches Us From Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., May 27, 1902
Editor STANDARD:—

Yesterday morning's mail brought me three copies of your valuable little paper for which I must thank you a thousand times.

Many of the people in this section are more than overjoyed over our good old Uncle Samuel giving the Cubans their liberty, and placing them in line with all the powerful republics on the face of God's blessed universe. My friends, no other nation on earth can ever come forward and say that they ever done such an act of kindness for a suffering and oppressed people, as did the United States in freeing Cuba and forever throwing from her neck the cruel yoke of Spain. My friends, three times in my remembrance those cruel demons of h—l, if I must call them so, insulted our flag by firing on it while our ships were peacefully sailing over the high seas. What was the result? I will tell you. They got out of it by paying a small indemnity and calling the American people a pack of cowards. They then blew up the Maine, killing hundreds of our noble seamen, thinking the Americans would swallow that insult as they had often done before. But that was the time they made the greatest mistake of their lives. They got a flogging they will never forget and lost nearly all their possessions in the New World, and if they hadn't sued for peace as they did we would have taken the Canary Islands away from them and shelled every town on the coast of Spain.

I notice by perusing the columns of the SEVEN DEVILS STANDARD that there is millions of wealth lying under the surface of Thunder and Seven Devils mountains in the shape of gold and copper ore. That is good news from your far away country and will no doubt bring capitalists there from all parts of the world, which will make Idaho and Oregon the greatest mining states in the union, and may perhaps eclipse any mining country on the face of the earth.

Keep Off the Street, Nelson!

There have been numerous suggestions relative to a cow ordinance in Cambridge. Such things should be accepted with a degree of reason. Just at present there is no occasion for an ordinance prohibiting stock from running at large. Later on when the grass is gone and the farmers come to town with hay and other articles in their wagon, such a law is necessary. In fact there is a time when it is not safe to even look green on our streets. A stock ordinance which would be in force during the winter months only, would be a good thing.—Cambridge Citizen.

HISTORY WILL REPEAT ITSELF IN THUNDER MOUNTAIN BOOM

Seven Devils and Rapid River Bids Welcome to All Disappointed Pilgrims.

Idaho and Montana papers are already beginning to figure on results destined to follow in the wake of the Thunder Mountain "overflow." They have seen the handwriting on the wall and are wise in their conclusions that after the rush has set in to Idaho's new Eldorado, hundreds, if not thousands, meeting with disappointments in this new gold field, will scatter out into other mining camps and districts in the sections named and in other mineral-bearing states.

"History is sure to repeat itself in the case of the Thunder Mountain boom, and the conditions which are sure to follow closely upon the heels of this inundation into this promised land of many legions of prospectors, capitalists and mining investors, can safely be predicted in advance, and no one needs to be endowed with the power of second sight to see this.

"It is fair to presume that not one in a hundred of the pilgrims to this new gold region will succeed in finding a bonanza. If one prospector in a thousand is successful in his quest of a paying mine the history of mining for centuries past will have been surpassed and eclipsed; as no camp or district, however rich, could not, within the range of human and physical possibility, furnish a paying mine for every one of the thousands who will visit the Thunder Mountain region this summer.

"As it is, no one doubts but that a score or two of Monte Cristos will eventually be found within the boundary lines of this section, so rich in its mineral promise; and this, in itself, would be a marvelous record. With the finding of this number of permanent and paying producers Thunder Mountain would more than duplicate the record of any mining district on this continent, and yet, should all of the predictions made concerning Thunder Mountain be realized, not one in a thousand of the treasure-seekers now heading towards these inviting fields would find a bonanza there.

"As a result of such failure, there is bound to be a tremendous overflow into adjoining and contiguous mineral-bearing sections, and every mining camp in Idaho, Montana and adjoining states is bound to be benefitted thereby. There are any number of districts in this western country, many of which have been barely prospected as yet, that are just as rich in their mineralization as is Thunder Mountain. Those who have the Thunder Mountain fever at the present time will realize the truth of this statement later on. We do not make this assertion with a view of discouraging those who are preparing to seek their fortune in this new field of wealth, because we feel confident that many will strike it rich there, and only the Lord knows who the lucky one will be; but merely to emphasize the fact that there are other sections of the west just as rich and which offer opportunities just as alluring, knowing full well that, meeting with failure in the objective point, many will turn aside to be favored by fortune in other localities in this intermountain region which are now in the background because of the excitement over newly-discovered districts.

The Mining Review has already pointed out the beneficial results destined to attend the Thunder Mountain boom in that the overflow will lead into other districts men of wealth, ability and enterprise, who will pick up a "good thing" here and there until the whole west will feel that it has been a participant in the benefits following the Thunder Mountain overflow.—The Salt Lake Mining Review.

No Country Under the Sun Offers a More Promising Field.

"The Man With the Hoe in Idaho." That is the title of a new folder just received by us, and issued by the Oregon Short Line R. R. It is one of the most attractive folders we have seen for many a day, and every page from cover to cover is chuck full of good and reliable news from the "Gem of the Mountains." The railway officials are to be congratulated upon the splendid manner in which the resources of our great State have been presented to the public, and we hope "The Man With the Hoe in Idaho" will be read in every home in the overcrowded East and South.

Among other good things it contains, we reproduce the following relating to our "Mineral Products and Resources."

"As yet but one side of the picture has been presented. Idaho stands fifth among the States of the Union in the production of the precious metals, first in the production of lead, and second in the production of gold. Within its borders are practically inexhaustible deposits of copper, iron and coal. Nearly every county in the State is a producer of valuable minerals, and the undeveloped mineral resources of the State are unparalleled in extent and richness. No State in the Union, no country under the sun, offers a more promising field to the prospector, miner and capitalist. To the agriculturist the mineral resources of Idaho are of crowning importance and advantage. Here we find the mountains pouring out their millions of gold and silver, lead and copper, four-fifths of the value of which flows into the valleys below in exchange for the products of the farm, garden orchard and range. There is no market in the world for the farmer that approaches a western mining camp. The miners live on the fat of the land, and cheerfully pay without questioning the cost. It is a remarkable fact that in nearly every section of Idaho the mines and the farms are almost contiguous. Go to the great mining camps of Owyhee, Lemhi, Custer and Boise counties, and glance down the mountain side. In the valley below will be seen flocks of sheep, herds of cattle and bands of horses, green pastures and bearing orchards. During the past five years the development of mines has advanced more rapidly than agricultural development, and today the farms and fields of Idaho do not produce sufficient of life's staples to support her own people. There is a crying need for thousands of farmers to cultivate and render productive the millions of acres of rich but untilled lands in arid Idaho.

"The following tables, which have been gleaned from official and other reliable sources, will indicate the extent of mining operations."

Idaho's total production from 1863 to 1901:

Gold	$106,562,889
Silver	90,757,617
Lead	51,641,067
Copper	210,000
Total	$249,171,573

It is the opinion of conservative men, familiar with the mines of the State, and competent to estimate with great accuracy, that between $1,500,000 and $1,800,000 in gold is taken out annually by individual placer miners, account of which it is impossible to obtain."

THE BOER WAR IS NOW ENDED

Peace in South Africa.--Terms to Which the Boers Subscribe.

LONDON, June 1.—An official cablegram from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 p. m., says:

"A document containing terms of surrender were signed here this evening at half past 10 o'clock by all the Boer representatives as well as Lord Milner (the British commissioner in South Africa) and myself."

The Peace Terms.

LONDON, June 2.—In the commons this afternoon the government leader, Lord Balfour, said that the terms of peace in South Africa are that the Boers lay down their arms and recognize the king. All Boer prisoners will be brought back as soon as possible without loss of property.

The Boers are to hand over all the arms and ammunition in their possession or under their control. No action will be taken against the prisoners except those who broke the laws of war. The Dutch language is to be taught in the schools where the parents desire it. Rifles will be allowed to the Boers for protection only. Military government will be withdrawn as soon as possible and self government established. There will be no tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost of the war and £3,000,000 will be provided for stocking the Boer farms.

Lord Kitchener, subsequent to signing the terms, informed the Boer delegates of the British intentions in regard to the care of rebels who are not included in the agreement. They will be subject to trial according to the laws of the colony to which they belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life, but no death sentences will be inflicted.

Balfour's statement was concluded amid uproarious applause.

THE TWO-MILE LIMIT LAW

Has Been Declared Valid.—The Decision is by a Divided Court.

In a decision filed last Monday, the supreme court has affirmed the validity of the law which prohibits sheep owners from grazing their flocks within two miles of inhabited dwellings. The decision is by a divided court. Chief Justice Quarles writes the opinion and Justice Sullivan concurs. Justice Stockslager dissents, but has filed no dissenting opinion.

The case in which the decision has been rendered is entitled E. Sweet vs. Samuel Ballentyne. Under the law the owner of a dwelling within two miles of which sheep are permitted to graze is entitled to recover for grass eaten and for any other damages inflicted. Sweet secured a verdict before Judge Stewart for $100 in the district court for Boise county against Ballentyne and the case was appealed.

The case has been vigorously contested by the sheep owners who claim that if the law was permitted to stand they would be compelled to leave the state. The case will go to the United States supreme court on the question of use of the public range.

Now is the Time to Invest.

Great fortunes will be made in the next few years in the mining industry of the Seven Devils and Rapid river districts. Careful selection of stocks in ably conducted corporations, developing promising properties of merit at the present time and the investment of a comparatively small amount of capital in them, will return handsome profits. While the stocks are being sold at low prices, to create development funds, is the time to invest, as many of them will probably double in value in a very short time, and those advertising in THE STANDARD are recommended to prospective investors as safe, conservative, legitimate mining enterprises.

Both sides to the dispute will be asked to send representatives to the meeting."

Just as the minister had finished the benediction and before any of the worshipers had left the church Lee, who was sitting behind Miss Suttle, leaned forward and fired at her. The first bullet entered her back, but no vital part was reached, and Lee fired again, the second bullet killing the girl instantly. While the church goers stood astounded, Lee backed out of the door and started for the woods.

People at Cul de Sac do not expect any trains over the Lapwai branch for the next two or three weeks. Of the 12 miles of grade between that point and Spalding, at least two miles have been washed out by recent high water. Division officials have not yet fixed the blame for the disaster, but admit that the freight had clearance orders past the point where the accident occurred. Engineer Vanstone was in charge of the work train engine. Bell was 34 years of age and was for many years employed on the Northern Pacific. His wife, to whom he was married less than two months ago, resides at Hope.

The Great Falls iron works are having a run on heavy work, and during the last two weeks have turned out three Trunyon converter sections for the Boston and Montana smelter. Each of the sections weighs seven tons, or 14,000 pounds.

A deal has been closed at Chesaw, Wash., whereby the Grant and the Velvet mining claims on Copper mountain, owned by Aaron Anderson, Pete Grant and James N. Dunn, were bonded to Thomas Clark, brother of Pat Clark, the millionaire mine owner of Spokane. The bond is for $33,000

The deposits of gold and silver at the Helena assay office during April amounted to $103,312.49 from Montana and $34,490.37 from other states and countries, a total of $137,802.86. The deposits in April, 1901, were $97,554.96 from Montana and $57,297.79 from other states and countries, a total of $154,952.75.

While no new Colorado mining locality is attracting sensational attention, there are several small places from which good reports come and in which there may be a large future development. In this we may find reason to believe that when some of the old camps decline new districts will be found to take their place.

Probably the largest deal that has been made in Thunder Mountain property was completed in Spokane Thursday, when Charles E. Skiles of Pittsburg, Pa., former purchasing agent for the Carnegie Steel company, and now president of the Pennsylvania Oil & Gas company, took a bond on four groups of claims from Col. John F. Finch of Butte and New York for $125,000.

The Black Lead mining claims have been bonded to Montana people, supposed to represent August Heinze of Butte. The price named in the bond is $100,000. Black Lead is located at Rhodes peak, about 15 miles from the summit of Lolo Bitter Root range. It is an enormous dyke, 380 feet wide, said to assay heavily in gold, silver and copper across the whole width. The vein was discovered and located in the summer of 1895 by William Rhodes, an old pioneer, who died in his cabin on the claim that winter.

TRADE REPORT.

New York.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade last week says:

Many mine labor controversies have been settled, but the situation in the anthracite region has assumed a more serious aspect. Railway earnings continue satisfactory, roads reporting for two weeks of May showing gains of 6.1 per cent over last year and 18.4 per cent over 1900. No change is reported in the iron and steel situation, former conditions merely becoming intensified by the threatened decrease in supplies of fuel and the labor controversies in certain branches of the industry.

The railroads are seeking rails, rolling stock and other equipment, while contractors request much structural material.

Slight concessions are now obtainable in some lines of footwear, although the market as a rule is fairly steady but dull. Leather is firmly held, while domestic packer hides again made a definite gain. Quiet conditions have prevailed in the cereal markets, with only a moderate volume of option transactions and fractional changes in quotations. Exports of wheat, including flour, were only 3,863,568 bushels during the past week, against 5,523,130 bushels in the corresponding week of last year.

Failures for the week numbered 192 in the United States, against 180 last year, and 12 in Canada, against 22 last year.

Mr. Sandquist was entirely overcome when he appeared at the morgue and identified the body as that of his son. No cause is assigned for the young man's death.

Matteson Got 10 Years.

Helena, Mont., May 28.—Herbert H. Matteson, the defaulting cashier of the First National bank of Great Falls, who pleaded guilty to the first count in the indictment returned against him last week by the federal grand jury, was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary by Judge Knowles. There were 90 counts in the indictment, and 89 charges remaining were dismissed by the United States district attorney.

Final Ratification of Treaty.

Washington, May 29.—Secretary Hay has closed up one of the principal places of refuge for criminals committing crimes in the United States, who has exchanged the new ratifications with Señor Claro, the Chilean minister here, and the new Chilean extradition treaty. The United States never had such a treaty with Chile, and some of the most notorious defaulters and embezzlers from the United States have found safety in that country. The negotiations which led up to the drafting of this arrangement lasted several years.

Disbarred for Two Years.

Helena, Mont., May 27.—Elbert D. Weed, formerly United States district attorney for Montana, ex-mayor of Helena and a well known republican politician, was suspended from practice for two years today by the supreme court on the charges of malpractice, preferred by a client, who instituted disbarment proceedings. The court declined to permanently disbar Mr. Weed, owing to the evidence of good character submitted.

COAL STRIKE MAY SPREAD

500 MINERS ARE INVOLVED.

Frank P. Sargent Expects a Sympathetic Strike of All Soft Coal Workers Will Soon Come—Both Sides Are Confident of Winning—No Compromise Looked For.

St. Louis, Mo., May 29.—Frank P. Sargent, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, member of the national labor arbitration committee, of which Senator Hanna is chairman, stated, so the Post-Dispatch says, that a general sympathetic strike of all the soft coal miners of the United States probably would be ordered. He declared that the miners of the Pennsylvania coal region had refused absolutely to treat with the regularly constituted arbitration board, and a sympathetic strike of the soft coal men was the only resource.

"The anthracite miners," continued Mr. Sargent, "asked very little, and were willing to make concessions, but the attitude of the operators from the start was such that I did not hesitate to suggest the strike to John Mitchell. I do not see at this time any hope of a compromise.

"The coal barons believe they are masters of the situation, while the workingmen are equally confident of their strength and their chances of success.

"There are 100,000 men idle as a result of the strikes.

"There are between 425,000 to 450,000 soft coal miners throughout the country, and not one union, in my judgment, would hesitate a moment to respond favorably to a call for a general strike."

Wreck in North Dakota.

Grand Forks, N. D., May 29.—The Great Northern Flyer was wrecked just this side of Ojata, eight miles west of here, while running at full speed. The only person seriously hurt is Frank Heffron, mail clerk, whose back was wrenched. The engine did not leave the rails. Several passengers are cut and bruised. It is supposed that the wreck was caused by the wheels of the tender striking some slight obstruction.

Six coaches, including everything between the engine and the sleepers, went off the rails and the baggage car took fire. The escapes seem miraculous. One man was thrown bodily through the car door and is unhurt, save for a few bruises. The mail car was thrown 50 feet clear off the track.

Millions Spent on the Navy.

Washington, May 30.—In response to a resolution of inquiry the secretary of the navy has forwarded to the senate a statement by the paymaster general of the navy, showing the expenditures of the government on account of navy operations in the Philippines from May 1, 1898, to date. The statement places the amount in round numbers of $30,000,000. The expenditure to November, 1899, was $6,643,634; for 1900, $5,612,000, and for 1901, $6,335,000. The remainder of the $20,000,000 is estimated for 1902, the exact figures for the present year being unavailable.

Elephant Killed Her Keeper.

New York, May 29.—"Tops," a female elephant of the Forepaugh & Sells circus, killed Joseph Blunt of Fort Wayne, Ind., at the show grounds in Brooklyn. It is customary for the elephants to put out their trunks as their keepers make their first round in the morning to "shake hands." When "Tops" proffered her trunk Blunt carried a beer glass and shoved it at the animal. The act offended the great beast and in an instant she seized the man with her trunk, hurled him violently to the ground, and, kneeling on him, crushed out his life.

Suicide Called an Ambulance.

New York, May 28.—Thomas H. Griffiths, a Brooklyn cigar manufacturer, has killed himself, after telephoning to a hospital for an ambulance and notifying an undertaker to call at his house prepared to take charge of a funeral in his family.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it is a fine tonic, and rebuilds the wasted tissues, creates an appetite, and restores the entire system to vigor and health. It cures permanently all forms of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had blotches on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, grow scaly, form, and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Siegfried, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

Funeral of Lord Pauncefote.

The late Lord Pauncefote, British ambassador to Washington, Wednesday was accorded a national funeral in token of the high esteem set by the American people on the personal worth of the deceased and as an acknowledgment of the friendly feeling which is cherished toward Great Britain. The St. John's church, of which the deceased was a member, did honor to his memory by bringing to Washington to conduct the services the coadjutor bishop of Philadelphia, the Rev. Mackay-Smith, under whom he had sat.

The services at St. John's church in their general contour were very similar to those which marked the memorial services in honor of the late Queen Victoria. The large choir of 40 men and boys took part in the service at Lady Pauncefote's request, and the three hymns sung in the body of the church were her personal selection.

The church presented a most beautiful and impressive picture while the solemn ceremony was in progress. At the conclusion of the services the bearers carried the casket slowly out, followed by the two bishops, while the mingled strains of organ and harp sounded through the church.

At the express wish of the family the escort from the church to the cemetery was limited to a single squadron of United States cavalry. Not even the honorary pall bearers were called on to accompany the remains further than the church. The remains were placed in the receiving vault to remain until such time as they should be conveyed on a United States warship across the Atlantic to the ancestral home of the late Lord Poncefote of Preston.

Retain Control of Steamers.

Hamburg, May 29.—At a meeting today the shareholders of the Hamburg-American line unanimously adopted a motion submitted by the directors with the view of assuring the control of the company from passing from the hands of the Germans to those of a foreign corporation.

It provides that the directors and board of supervision must be German subjects and live in Germany, and that in order to change this provision or transfer the seat of business of the company to a foreign country, or to dissolve the company, or do anything involving the loss of or the restriction of independence of the company in favor of foreign undertaking, it will be necessary for a resolution to that effect to be adopted by shareholders representing four-fifths of the capital at a general meeting, and that a confirmation of the resolution by the same majority be adopted at a second general meeting.

Tragedy at Denver.

Denver, Col., May 28.—Cass Dameron, 33 years of age, shot his wife, aged 25, in the head killing her instantly at the Victor hotel, in this city and then committed suicide by shooting. They were circus performers and of late have been giving street shows to aid in advertising a patent medicine.

A great Sufferer from Rheumatism cured by St Jacobs Oil.

MR. E. G. MOORE, of 7 Phillips Street, Kingsland:

"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for many years, during which time I tried many remedies, from which I received but very little relief. Being advised to use St Jacobs Oil, I am happy to say that after a few applications I felt great relief, and continuing its use I am perfectly well. St. Jacobs Oil is, in my opinion, a thing which should be in every household."

What a blessing, and what hours of suffering, pain, and misery would have been saved had Mr. Moore adopted the wiser course and used St. Jacobs Oil at first, instead of wasting time and money on worthless embrocations and nostrums with which, unfortunately, the market is flooded. The public should not lose sight of the fact that St. Jacobs Oil has conquered pain for more than fifty years, and it isn't going to stop doing the same thing now or at any future time. Fifty years record of pain conquering is a record to inspire confidence. Send to St. Jacobs Oil, Ltd., Baltimore, for free trial bottle.

MRS. JUDGE MCALLISTER.

Mrs. Judge McAllister writes from 317 West 33rd St., Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"I suffered for years with a pain in the small of my back and right side. It interfered often with my domestic and social duties and I never supposed that I would be cured, as the doctor's medicine did not seem to help me any.

"Fortunately a member of our Order advised me to try Peruna and gave it such high praise that I decided to try it. Although I started in with little faith, I felt so much better in a week that I felt encouraged.

"I took it faithfully for seven weeks and am happy indeed to be able to say that I am entirely cured. Words fail to express my gratitude. Perfect health once more is the best thing I could wish for, and thanks to Peruna I enjoy that now."—Minnie E. McAllister.

The great popularity of Peruna as a catarrh remedy has tempted many people to imitate Peruna. A great many so-called catarrh remedies and catarrhal tonics are to be found in many drug stores. These remedies can be procured by the druggist much cheaper than Peruna. Peruna can only be obtained at a uniform price, and no druggist can get it a cent cheaper.

Thus it is that druggists are tempted to substitute the cheap imitations of Peruna for Peruna. It is done every day without a doubt.

Great Damage Done by High Water in Colorado—Trains Are All Tied Up—No Bridges Passable—Damage at Pueblo is Estimated at Not Less Than $300,000.

Pueblo, May 28.—The damage done in this city by the flood in the Fountain river is estimated at $300,000. The railroads are the principal sufferers. No through trains are running, owing to washouts and destruction of bridges. So far as known there has been no loss of life, but some persons are reported to be missing.

A heavy rain is falling all along the eastern slope of the mountains and is delaying the work of repairing railroad tracks and telegraph lines. No bridges are passable between Pueblo and Fountain. All trains are held at Pueblo. County and city bridges were damaged to the extent of $100,000, private property to $100,000 and railroads as much more. Fountain river is still beyond the banks, but no further danger is apprehended.

Five hundred people are homeless. The street car traffic in East Pueblo is shut off and can not be resumed for many days. The Arkansas river is not yet out of its banks, but is rising rapidly.

Chieftian Contract Completed.

Last Saturday Doug Weston completed the 350-foot tunnel contract on the Chieftian. The task was a very tedious one, owing to the exceedingly hard formations encountered. The ore body was not reached, as expected in going this distance, but every indication points to its proximity. Andrew Adams, general manager for the company owning this property, was expected in this week from Salubria to accept the contract. It is reported that another contract will be let and developments will again resume at an early date. Mr. and Mrs. Weston will probably go to Salubria for a short visit after which Mr. W. will return to his Black Lake property.

The editor of the SEVEN DEVILS STANDARD is a sort of "cliptomanic," but he doesn't seem to have much of a mania for giving credit for his clippings. —Cambridge Citizen.

Its very seldom for anything emanating from the befuddled and calamity howling Citizen to attract outside attention, and if we clipped anything from it without telling where it came from we feel very bad.

There's Danger Here!

Since the disastrous Mount Pelee eruption there have been numerous volcanos discovered and heard rumbling. Unless some one "chokes off" some of that "hot air" that's coming in here from Weiser and other points in regard to the future movements of Mr. Hall and his company, we'll look for Smith's mountain to blow up, or one of the Seven Devils to puke.

Wilkie—Whiffen.

The bride and groom are well known residents of Dale, and their many friends wish them a happy voyage over the matrimonial sea. They will reside on Hornet creek.
